UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

RHONDA E. NELSON,

Defendant.

Cr. No. 04-20505-MI/P

MOTION GRANTED

 JON PHIPPS McCALLA
 U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE
 Sept. 30, 2005

DATE

MOTION TO CONTINUE REPORT DATE

Comes now the United States of America by and through its counsel, Lawrence J. Laurenzi, Acting United States Attorney for the Western District of Tennessee, and files its Motion to Continue the report date from the present setting of October 28, 2005 until the December report date. Additional time is requested due to information received by the Bureau of Prisons (hereafter "BOP"). A material witness, who is in federal custody, has been experiencing a high risk pregnancy and is scheduled to deliver on September 27, 2005. At that time the mother and the child will be housed together for a three month period. Information from the Bureau of Prisons indicates that the issuance of a writ for this witness would require the BOP securing someone to take custody of the child. Information indicates this could impose a hard ship on the inmate's family as well as the BOP. Furthermore, the government anticipates calling this witness in another case before the court, United States v. Trina T. Thomas, 04-20506. This would result in two different writs and two different periods of separation for mother and child. For these reasons, we respectfully request that the report date be continued until December.

Respectfully submitted,

LAWRENCE J. LAURENZI
Acting United States Attorney
